ACCOUNT BOOK

FOR

WEEKLY OFFERINGS

MacCalla and Company, Inc.
3640 Market Street
Philadelphia 4, Pa.

Suggestions

When the pledges are received, for convenience arrange the names in alphabetical order, numbering consecutively 1, 2, 3, etc., and enter them in the columns so marked; at the left after name and address and at the right before remarks.

Write the dates of the Sundays in the spaces opposite date line. There are 13 spaces for the 13 Sundays in the quarter.

Payments

The payments each Sunday are entered in the respective columns.

At the close of the quarter, the Total Quarterly Receipts are entered in the proper columns.

To find the balance due at end of any quarter, add balance due, if any, at the end of previous quarter to the amount pledged for the quarter, then find the difference between this amount and the amount paid during the quarter and enter in the balance column at the end of the present quarter. Where there is a credit balance, add this amount to the amount paid and deduct the amount pledged, the difference to be entered in the balance column. In either case, if the balance is due, enter in black ink, but if a credit balance, enter in red ink.
